RED NOSE DAY

Red Nose Day—Friday 17th March Red Nose Day—Friday 17th March

Next Friday the 17th March as part of Red Nose Day, the child can come to school dressed in something red or their own clothes if they prefer. During the day the School Council and Play Leaders will be organising a quiz, a penalty shoot out, design your own Little Miss/Mr Man character, guess the number of sweets in a jar and also a sweet and treats stall. Please send your children in with no more than £5 to spend for these activities.

Thank you from the Student Council and Play leaders

Mother's Day Cream Tea—Friday 17th March 2.30pm

We are inviting all mams and grandmas to join us in school for a Mother's Day Cream Tea on Friday 17th March at 2.30pm. If mams or grandmas can't attend another special person is very welcome. We look forward to seeing you next Friday.

Woodland Village Hall

On Saturday 25th March at 6pm the village hall will be hosting Cello on Fire - a solo cello music show. Not your standard classical recital but a very colourful mix of styles, ranging literally from Baroque to Rock. The programme consists of works by contemporary musicians, classical pieces and a wide range of Jazz and Folk inspired music including spectacular virtuoso cross over music. Combining to provide an entertaining and colourful night full of Cello surprises.

The event consists of two 40-minute sessions starting at 6pm, with a 20 minute interval during which tea, coffee and ice cream will be available – and you're welcome to bring along your own liquid refreshments. Full price tickets are £10 but school pupils and teachers can attend for just £6 each.

You can find out more using the web links below.

The performer is Peter Hudler and this link lets you find out more and listen to some of his amazing music:
